

San Benito Oriana Chorale -- Winter 2018 (Part 2)

Rebecca Miser was our piano accompanist for most of the Winter 2018 season. Her skill at the piano kept us all on pitch as we practiced our program. Rebecca also sings Alto in the choir and is the co-director and accompanist for the Oriana Youth Chorus.

A view from the choir -- the Altos and Sopranos at practice. Along with spiritual and religious music, we also do a number of secular songs: "Zumba, Zumba" (a traditional Spanish carol), "We are Lights" and "Celebration of Lights" (two songs celebrating Hanukkah), "Stars I Shall Find" (a romantic holiday ballet), and a jazzy "Rudolph the Red Nose Reindeer" (just for fun).

Over her sixteen seasons with us, our director Rachel Romina has won the hearts of our members and our audiences. We are delighted to have her choosing our music, conducting our practices and leading our vocal sectionals. This season, we are honored that she will be singing a solo in our performance of "Do You Hear What I Hear?"
